

A black and white line drawing of a whimsical town at night. The word "HAPPYLAND" is written in large, bold, stylized letters across the center. Above the letters is a jester's head wearing a pointed hat. To the left, a witch on a broom flies over a house. In the foreground, a dragon, a teddy bear, a fireman, and a character with large ears and a wide grin are visible. There are also various gifts, a pumpkin, and stars scattered throughout the scene.
